Reading 2 Choose the best option which best answers each of the questions

By Match this year, we shall have raised enough money to buy the equipment for the Youth Club. When we have raised the money, we are planning to go back to the Youth Club leaders in order to discover exactly what is needed most. Plans have been made for the Book Sale which will be held on 15th February. This means that many of us will be spending the first two weeks of February collecting books. The event is likely to be held in the Town Hall. If there are problems here, however, we hope that other Club members might come up with some alternative suggestions.

As we are proposing to sponsor a student from Africa on a three-month language course in this country, we also intend to hold a Charity Dance in the spring. Such events are apt to be difficult to organize, so all members of the Club are invited to contribute or help in any way they can.

The moment I was asked if we could possibly help in some way with the new Club for the Disabled, I said yes. As Chairman, I am bound to say that this is the sort of social work many Club members would like to do, other than simply raising money. We are therefore planning to ask members if they can perhaps help out on one Saturday every month.

Finally, by January next year the Club will have been going for twenty years, and the Committee intend to mark this anniversary with some kind of dinner, a dance or a party. We have already been offered (unofficially) the use of the dance all at 'The Forest Hotel'. However, we shall be devoting one of our meetings in the near future to full discussion on the form of the event, etc. Any suggestions will be welcome.

Passage 2: Read the passage and choose the correct answer to each of the following questions.

Helping others in need is such an important part of the American way of life that many high schools require their students to spend a certain number of hours volunteering in order to graduate.

So how do you go about it?

If you like animals, help out at a local animal shelter. Most shelters depend on volunteers to keep the cats and dogs happy and well exercised.

If you have a friend or relative who has or had a medical problem (like cancer, HIV, or diabetes, for example), you might be inspired to donate your time to help an organization that raises money for research, delivers meals, or offers other help to people with the illness.

If you like children, there are tons of volunteering opportunities – from being a Big Brother or Big Sister to helping out in an after-school sports program.

You also can:

- serve food at a homeless shelter
- volunteer to spend time at a retirement community
- help out at your church or synagogue
- take part in a park cleanup day

The possibilities are endless!

And if you have more than one thing you love, you can combine the two. For example, if you love kids and are great at arts and crafts, visit your local children's hospital and offer to lead art activities for young patients.

40. What is the main idea of the passage?

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------------|
| A. Money can't be used to do volunteering | B. Different ways of volunteering |

REVIEW- READING

READING 1:

For the past fifteen years the city of Brest in France has been attracting attention of another kind. Governmental and non-governmental bodies are praising the city for its contribution to children's.....(1).....This contribution is in the form of an organization that is made up of senior citizens who work as volunteer teachers in primary schools in the city. This organization(2).....in 1985. Since then, other cities and towns all over France have followed the example set in Brest.

Men and women.....(3).....the ages of fifty-five and eighty years work in this organization. Madame Faust is one of them. For the past seven years she has(4)..... as a volunteer teacher in the Carbonne Primary school. They find her very kind, patient and loving. She helps the slower children along so they are not afraid of making mistakes. Many of the children confide in her. Sometimes they tell her things they do not tell their teachers and parents. To Madame Faust,(5).....volunteer teacher is very rewarding.

READING 2.

Volunteering is generally considered an unselfish (1)_____ activity and is intended to promote goodness or improve human quality of life. In return, it produces a feeling of self-worth and respect, rather than money. To volunteer simply means to be motivated and give your time or energy to work forwards an undertaking or cause you are interested in. Volunteering gives individuals the chance to explore avenues that would not usually be open to them. This experience enables an exchange of culture and _____(2) contact between volunteers and those who benefit.

_____ (3) children volunteer, they often find themselves in a position where responsibility is required. They gain self-confidence when they know they've (4)_____ a real contribution to a project. Research shows those who volunteer just one hour a week are 50 percent less likely to abuse drugs or alcohol, smoke cigarettes or engage in destructive behaviour. In my opinion, voluntary work needs _____(5) into the school curriculum. We need to motivate young people and make sure we create a culture or social activism where we insist that people help their community to empower others, as well as themselves.

READING 3.

Today, more and more Vietnamese women are actively participating in social activities both in urban and rural areas. In fact, they have been very successful in even many fields which used to be regarded as men's areas such as business, scientific research and social management. In some areas, women even show more overwhelming power than men. The image of Vietnamese women with creativeness, dynamism and success has become popular in Vietnam's society. It is said that the gender gap has been remarkably narrowed and women enjoy many more opportunities to pursue their social careers and contribute to the nation's socio-economic development. According to Ms, Le Thi Quy, Director of the Gender/and Development Research Centre, gender equality in Vietnam has reached a high level over the past decade. The rate of Vietnamese women becoming National Assembly members from the 9th term to the 11th term increased by 8.7%, bringing the percentage of Vietnamese women in authority to 27.3%, the highest rate in Southeast Asia. Besides, there is no big gap in the level of literacy and schooling between men and women. Women account for about 37% of university and college graduates, 19.9% of doctoral degree holders and 6.7% of professors and associate professors.

Mass media also highlights the continued success of women in every field and honors their great importance in modern society. Many projects on reproductive health care, children protection, and family income improvement jointly conducted by various mass organizations, state agencies and non-governmental organizations have created favorable conditions for women to become involved.
