Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the questions followed.

The generation gap, which refers to a broad difference between one generation and another, especially between young people and their parents, usually leads to numerous conflicts. Such family conflicts can seriously threaten the relationship between parents and children at times.

One common issue that drives conflicts is the clothes of teenagers. While most teens are keen on wearing fashionable clothes which try to catch up with the youth trends, a number of parents who value traditional clothes believe that those kinds of attire violate the rules and the norms of the society. It becomes worse when the expensive brand name clothes teens choose seem to be beyond the financial capacity of parents.

Another reason contributing to conflicts is the interest in choosing a career path or education between parents and teenagers. Young people are told that they have the world at their feet and that dazzling future opportunities are just waiting for them to seize. However, some parents try to impose their choices of university or career on them regardless of their children's preference.

Indeed, conflicts between parents and children are the everlasting family phenomena. It seems that the best way to solve the matter is open communication to create mutual trust and understanding.

Question 27: The passage is mainly about _____?

- A. the major causes of conflicts between parents and children
- B. how to solve conflicts between parents and children nowadays
- C. the differences between parents and children
- D. the good relationship between parents and children at times

- A. feet
- B. opportunities
- C. young people
- D. parents

Question 30: According to the passage, which of the following sentences is TRUE?

- A. Some parents always buy expensive brand name clothes for their children
- B. No parents want their children to follow their wishes in education and career
- C. Family conflicts are normal and can be solved easily
- D. Open communication is the most effective way to solve conflicts in family

Question 31: It can be inferred from the passage that many parents _____.

- A. do not like the youth trends in fashionable clothes
- B. threaten the relationship between parents and children
- C. try to impose their choices of university or career on their children
- D. are open-minded but do not create mutual trust and understanding
